MUSC 1890 Music in New Orleans Music in New Orleans

Service learning students will gain firsthand knowledge of musical socialization – the role of young people in extending the city's musical traditions – by interacting with students and instructors at the Roots of Music afterschool music program for middle-school children. Service learning students will schedule 40 hours of work over the course of the semester. Each Tulane student will assist with academic tutoring one weekday per week from 3:30 pm to 6:00 pm.
